DR. GANAPHATHY MAHALINGAM PUBLISHES NEW ARCHITECTURE BOOK

Professor of Architecture Dr. Ganaphathy has published his second book titled, Bit by Brick: Computing Architectural Design. The 200-page was recently published by Kendall Hunt Publishing Company. His first book, A Guide to the Design Thesis in Architecture, was published in 2022.

The book is a compendium ( a weighing together) of his contributions to the field of computer-aided architectural design in the past three decades. It is a silent testimony of his research career at NDSU.

MINNESOTA MARINE MUSEUM WINONA, MN KIMBLE A. BROMLEY: ON VIEW SEPTEMBER 8, 2023 - JANUARY 7, 2024

This exhibition features 23 expressive paintings by Fargo artist Kimble A. Bromley, inspired by the true 19th century account of a large whale attacking the whaling ship Essex, and Herman Melville's classic novel Moby-Dick (1851) inspired by this remarkable event. Bromley explains "These paintings develop from my own personal life experiences, life experiences as Melville presents aboard the whaling ship Pequod. These experiences are human experiences we can all relate to in some way."

Kimble is a Professor Art at North Dakota State University in Fargo teaching painting, drawing, and art history. Kimble will be presenting his Creativity Enhancement Workshop on October 28 from 1:00-3:00.

PROF. KIMBLE BROMLEY AT THE PLAINS

Kim Bromley's work FLOWERS NEAR THE POND will be on display at the Plains Art Museum as part of the FMVA Studio Crawl Preview Exhibition. Each year, Fargo Moorhead Visual Artists (FMVA) presents the Studio Crawl—a popular, free event that gives the community access to professional artist studios. The Studio Crawl is an opportunity for people to meet artists, see demonstrations, and purchase their work. As a collaboration between the Museum and FMVA, the Museum is proud to announce this year's preview exhibition, containing artwork from participating artists displayed a month prior to the studio crawl weekend. This year's Studio Crawl will take place on Saturday, October 1, and Sunday, October 2, and over 80 artists will have artwork on view in 39 different locations.

BISMARCK ART AND GALLERY ASSOCIATION GIVERNY PAINTING WORKS BY KIMBLE BROMLEY SHOWING SEPTEMBER 5-29

Bromley's exhibit is a result of his exploration of various ponds across the state of Minnesota for the past 15 years. He lives on 20 acres made up of 12 acres of woods and an 8 acre pond. There, he paints on location celebrating the light and color he encounters.

In 2019 he had the opportunity to travel to France to study Monet's paintings and to visit his gardens in Giverny. It was an inspirational experience and the paintings in this exhibit are his interpretation of the gardens Monet so lovingly created. Bromley will offer his Creativity Enhancement Workshop on September 30, 10:00-12:00.

ASSIST. PROF. ANDREW STARK EXHIBITION SEPT. 8TH - OCT. 20

Western Wyoming Community College (Western) opened a new exhibition of digital and printed artworks by North Dakota artist Andrew Stark in Western's art gallery this fall. The show will run from Sept. 8 through Oct. 20, with a reception held on Sept. 15.

Western's gallery aims to promote arts-centered learning for college students and community members alike. In an effort to expand on public understanding of artmaking, Western welcomes the vibrant abstracted works of Andrew Stark with his exhibition: Generative Memory.

The exhibition will be open to the public Friday, September 8, with an opening reception to be hosted in the gallery on the evening of Friday, Sept. 15, from 5-7 p.m. Stark led an artist talk and workshop with students.

“MEMORIES OF THE FUTURE”

RECEPTION AT MU GALLERY

SEPT. 19TH, 5-7PM TALKS@5:30P

“Memories Of Our Future ” examines how curation can challenge a sanitized version of history while bringing attention to marginalized groups. The exhibition is curated by Ren Dillard of Atlanta, GA and it uses the permanent collections of North Dakota State University’s to challenge traditional narratives often reinforced by museums and institutions. Through texts, recordings, everyday objects and artwork sequestered to the storage of a vault, Dillard has curated an installation that draws attention to the complex histories of blacks and Native Americans, in affront to familiar historical narratives.

Dillard will be visiting North Dakota State University from September 16-20 and will speaking about his curation during a reception on September 19th from 5-7pm. This exhibition will be on display from September 19- October 12.

You can learn more about Ren Dillard at renswork.com.

SCULPTURE STUDENTS EXHIBIT AT ROURKE ART MUSEUM

The Rourke Art Museum in Moorhead recently hosted an exhibition of sculptural works created from NDSU, Concordia and MSUM. Morgan Chandler, Braden John and Megan Thibodeau were among nine artist showcasing works completed during Sculpture 1 taught by Anthony Faris.

The works included in the exhibition were all Reliquaries that include casted objects that hold some sentimental meaning to the artists. The works were on display since April and were seen by hundreds of visitors to the Moorhead Musuem. The Tri-College exhibition is hosted each year at the Rourke.
