VISITING ARTIST: MARY BRUNO OCTOBER 11-13

Mary grew up in a small town in Central Minnesota, she is a printer and learned her love of printing from her Design professor father Don Bruno. Since his passing in 2003 she has taken over his small letterpress print shop in St. Joseph, Minnesota and expanded, both physically and figuratively. Mary has an irreverent line of greeting cards and more that is sold nationwide and she teaches the old school tradition of letterpress printing the way her father taught her. She organizes international travelling art exhibitions with printers all over the world. She carves linoleum and hand sets wood and lead type to make posters, broadsides, and anything that she comes up with. Mary is a community go-getter and loves to collaborate with other printers, poets, musicians, kids, other designers, you name it.

Printing her designs is what feeds her soul along with travel and meeting new people.

You will learn about the proper ways to handle professional art, receive an in-depth tour of the Memorial Union gallery, help curate a show, and install a few pieces in a professional exhibition.

The goal of this internship is to expand your experience in the arts. When you finish this internship we would like you to have an understanding of how to curate works of art, know how to handle professional works of art, be able to articulate and share your thoughts, and grow an appreciation for the effort it takes to curate a gallery show.
